

BUILDING UP OUR WOMANHOOD

Glance Up-to Die by Her Friends, a Young Lady Recovers Her Health and Increases Weight—45 Pounds.

A Powerful Nation Needs Strong Healthy Women.

A nation is no stronger than its women. Hence, it is the duty of every woman whether young, middle aged, or in advanced life to preserve her health. If you are sick and suffering don't wait until tomorrow but seek relief at once—Today. Tomorrow your illness may take a chronic turn.

Every ill. Thousands have found Peruna to be that remedy as did Miss Clara Lohr of 21 N. Gold St.
Grand Rapids, Michigan. She writes a friend: "I don't need Peruna any more. I am all well after taking six bottles. I weighed ninety pounds before I started and was poor and weak. I had such a cough and spitting all the time that I never expected to recover.
My friends gave me up. I could eat nothing. Now I can eat and weigh 130 pounds. I most thankfully recommend Peruna to my friends."

Miss Lohr's letter is an inspiration, a message of hope to suffering women. It tells you that you too may be strong and well and vigorous.

Peruna may be had in either liquid or tablet form. Ask your dealer. If you value health, do not accept a substitute. Dr. Hartman's World Famous Peruna Tonic is what you want. The Peruna Company, Dept. 73, Columbus, Ohio, also publish Dr. Hartman's Health Book.
The book is free. Write for it.
Your dealer will give you a Peruna Almanac.

A NEW MILLINERY SHADE IS SOLDAT BLUE, THIS AUTUMN Solidat blue is one of the favorite shades this season. It was employed in developing a handsome hat shown yesterday, when the price was the popular fur beaver. A burnt ostrich irregular band adorned the brim. The price of this elegant hat was $18.50.

A natty little hat with a smart plumage, with two smart, coque feather wings. A glance at the price marked showed $23.95. Nearby, a feather hat of brown with canopy-carrying wings sold for $23.95.

Hatters' plush in a begonia shade was the foundation of a trim small hat which had a gold broad band and brim. The novel and effective trimming was two velvet polonaises.
This choice hat sold for $14.50.

A striking model shown was an acoplane shade of Liberty blue velvet, with novel points of fur beaver, and band of the same fashionable fur. Vari-colored frills formed the trimming and the price tag showed a $15.50 mark.

Henna is one of the new and modish tints—it is a warm brown on the majority shade. This is rich silk was employed in building a distinctive smart hat turned up at the back, and having a brim of brown velvet.
The trimming was ribbon in brown and silver and a brown faner.

Extremely elegant was a brown velvet turban, its simple, but rich trimming in brown and blue tulle, its price $15.

A novel effect was obtained by using for a draped turban in royal purple velvet fluffy ostrich feather trimming.
Twelve dollars bought this swaggarhat.

From day to day new and handsome designs are being brought out from the workrooms and a study of show-cases and window displays indicates what choice hats are obtainable by the shopper who desires a really fashionable and becoming bit of headwear.

While the prices quoted are of average pattern hats, the taste and pique of every buyer can be satisfied by carefully made and modish examples of the best in the millinery art.

Bulletin today, as a reliable guide to shopping which is certain to prove pleasing, economical and to the queen's taste!

NORWICH TOWN
There was a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Chapman of 44 East Town street Tuesday for the first time in years. Among those present were Mr. Chapman's brother Edgar of Groton, now on a steamship.
Mrs. Perkins and daughter of Groton and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Perkins of Groton, the two Mrs. Perkins being sisters of Mr. Chapman. While here they had the pleasure of calling on their former teacher, Miss Sara Adams, at the Johnson home.

A well wisher in one who invests his coin in all wells.

year old brood heifer to be sold at public auction in front of the grand stand at the Berlin fair at 3 p. m. today (Thursday), Governor's day, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE
"It is one thing to 'carry on,' but it is another and much more difficult thing to reconstruct the nation after the heat and passion of battle and to inspire friendliness, confidence, kindliness and magnanimity. We cannot afford to waste time in the unimportant disregarding opportunities for training for the reconstruction period; days of burden bearing are coming and the burdens will be heavier than were ever borne by our ancestors for many generations back," said President Benjamin Franklin Marshall to the assembled classes at the opening exercises at the Connecticut College for Women on Wednesday morning at New London.

The college gymnasium was filled by the four classes, the first year the college has opened with four full classes. The seniors, the first class of the college in caps and gowns, marched into the building to the music of The Star Spangled Banner to places assigned to them, while the faculty, also in academic dress, and other classes stood awaiting them. Chapel services will be held at 10 o'clock today.

The opening address was given by Dr. John E. Wells, professor of English, who spoke on the subject College Education in the Twentieth Century.
Ivoryton.—The Chester Liberty chapter has been asked to take part in the exercises of unveiling the hono-ties of the government, of the changes in the states, industrial changes and changes in the spirit of the people. In part he spoke as follows:

College people have long had the reputation of the elite of the country, but the phrase has a new meaning now. We are doing something valuable for the country; we are "carrying on" a valuable and important work; the fact that the government and the public opinion allow and urge us to continue at our work testifies to the value of higher education. The opportunity is here for us to prepare and train for the reconstruction period, when we must do work for all women-kind. Whether it is a matter of duty or a matter of opportunity, we cannot afford to miss the chance.

The entering class, which is one of the largest in the college, numbers 88 and this to the utmost the material facilities of the college. At the present time there are about 15 Norwich girls at the college prominent in one or another phase of college life and activities.

Among the changes in instructors announced by the president on Wednesday was that of the appointment of William Wheeler to succeed Frederick Weld, assistant professor of music, who resigned from the faculty several weeks ago to accept an appointment as director of music in the navy. The appointment comes from the war work council of the Y. M. C. A. and entails a wide field of supervision.
Mr. Weld has been connected with the college for the past five years as assistant professor of music. He was a pupil of Max Maretzek, Oscar Sanger, Hermann Klein and for seven years was baritone soloist at St. Bartholomew's church in New York. He has appeared as soloist at various times with the Boston Symphony orchestra, the New York Philharmonic orchestra and other prominent musical organizations. He has conducted a studio in New York city for many years and has taught at New Haven and New London and at the Chautau-que and New York city summer schools.

LIBERTY HILL
Last Thursday, an ideal day, the ladies of Liberty Hill held their annual fair and apron sale. There was a large attendance and over a hundred enjoyed the supper provided and the ice cream sold. A company of thirty or more came from Williamantic. About $88 was netted.

Rev. Elwell O. Mead of Cornwall, a former local pastor, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Payson last Tuesday night and Wednesday night. Wednesday night he was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George Clark. Mr. Mead

RED CROSS HAS USE
FOR SILVER AND GOLD
The Norwich Red Cross is making an appeal for old silver and gold trinkets which can be melted up and sold.
Will you not look up any such articles and send them in to the melting pot at the Red Cross building, 100 Thames street, or to the Red Cross chapter, maple rings, broken silver, knives, forks and a thousand other things, useless to their present owners, but all with a value beyond calculation to oversight the Red Cross. The Red Cross most gratefully received.

He was considered one of the most valuable instructors in the college, as well as one of the most efficient, and was popular with faculty and students

Don't Cough Until Weak Tired out and weakened with persistent coughing, elderly people are in no condition to resist disease, and can not easily ward off more serious sickness.

FOLEY'S HONEY-TAR helps coughs quickly. It brings quick relief from day and night coughs, whether they result from cold, lagrippe, bronchial affection or tickling throat.

Adjustments are given with good results, both in general, and so-called "Diseases of Women and Children."

Dr. D. M. Woodward
CHIROPRACTOR

220 THAYER BUILDING NORWICH, CONN.
Women and Children

By invitation of the pastor, Rev. J. H.
Knott, led the prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

Although the mercury was forty on Friday morning, there has been no frost to date.

Patriotic local women have been very busy here the last few weeks canning and with Red Cross work.
On account of frost holding off and heavy rains, it has greatly improved moving lands which have been badly eaten by grasshoppers.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Loomis and family of Schenectady, N. Y., arrived here Tuesday morning. Their goods are on the way and they will
